October 28 & 29, 2017

Dear Parishioners,

Last Sunday I referred to Fr. Antonio Spadaro's speech at a conference held at Boston College on Pope Francis' "Amor Laetitia". He spoke of the two basic pastoral principles of Francis: 1) Never give up on anyone and 2) Dialogue. To always hold hope for the other, to desire reconciliation, it so important. If we have this attitude toward everyone, it really affects our attitude. No one is an enemy. Each person is the neighbor I love, as I love myself.

The second principle is "dialogue". To want to enter into relationship and truly listen to the other. To show the other that you respect him/her. To let go of presuppositions and to be totally open. If each party possesses this, you have the pathway to Truth.

Will this always happen? By no means. Arrogance, stupidity, psychological issues can easily get in the way. But it is so important to want and desire dialogue even when it cannot be achieved. It is a stance toward Life that we want to always have. It is a stance of openness and is reflective of how Jesus lived his life, respecting the other and wanting to encounter everyone.

Last week I mentioned that we are 54% toward our Archdiocesan Annual Appeal goal of $69,583. If you feel that you can help us in fulfilling our goal you can place a check in the envelope supplied in the pews and drop it in the collection box or send a check to the Parish office with the notation AAA in the memo section. If for some reason known to you, you prefer to give a gift as unrestricted or restricted (for a particular purpose, i.e. liturgy, music, etc.), please note that on the check. Whatever you can do is greatly appreciated.

Apostles Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus Christ, his only Son, Our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
And ascended into heaven,
And is seated at the right hand of God,
the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the
living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church;
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen.

Stewardship Prayer

Lord and source of all gifts, I rejoice in the fullness of your generosity. I thank you for those whose lives are visible signs of your love and blessing to others. Give me the courage to do the same. Make me a good steward of all I have received generously sharing my time, abilities and material resources to build up your kingdom of love and justice. We ask this through Jesus Christ, in whom we begin and end all things. Amen.

Prayer of St. Francis

(Prayer for Peace)

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace;
where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
and where there is sadness, joy.
O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;
to be understood, as to understand;
to be loved, as to love; for it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to Eternal Life. Amen
