February 10 & 11, 2018

Dear Parishioners,

Pope Francis has struggled to bring a more pastoral approach to the Catholic Church. His basic premise is that this is the Jesus of the Gospels who always extends mercy and understanding. There are some that object to Francis' approach. They say that he is watering-down Catholicism and its dogmatic truths. Divorce and remarriage is a good example. Francis still upholds that Christian Marriage is forever, but he also believes that people can make serious mistakes, truly regret them and be brought pastorally into the life of the Church. I knew of a wonderful wife and mother in the parish I grew up in that did not receive communion because her first marriage of one month prohibited her from receiving the Eucharist. Her children always wondered why they could receive and she couldn't. Believe me, this woman was a saint. This is an area of Church life that really needs to be touched by God's Mercy.

The Archdiocese of San Francisco has a special ministry for those who have experienced the pain of separation and divorce. The Archdiocese has several support groups that meet on a regular basis. For more information contact me, Fr. Ray. There is no reason anyone should feel separated from the Church.

Next week is Ash Wednesday and the beginning of our Lenten observance. A wonderful way to enter into the repentance of the season is to use Sacred Space which is available to all our parishioners. It is a wonderful opportunity to turn from wrongdoing and believing in the Good News. Use this guide each day.

"Repent and Believe the Good News."

Raymond Allen, S.J.

Sanctuary Update

With the support of parishioners, the family that St. Agnes has been supporting has been able to find work and to enroll the children in school. Currently, the family is in urgent need of permanent housing. There is a non-profit that is willing to provide a stipend for rent but has given us to the end of March to secure housing. If you know anyone who has available housing (at least a 2-bedroom apartment), please contact Grace at the Spiritual Life Center: Grace@SaintAgnesSF.com. We are committed to finding the family a safe place to live.

Apostles Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus Christ, his only Son, Our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
And ascended into heaven,
And is seated at the right hand of God,
the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church;
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen.

Stewardship Prayer

Lord and source of all gifts, I rejoice in the fullness of your generosity. I thank you for those whose lives are visible signs of your love and blessing to others. Give me the courage to do the same. Make me a good steward of all I have received generously sharing my time, abilities and material resources to build up your kingdom of love and justice. We ask this through Jesus Christ, in whom we begin and end all things. Amen.

Prayer of St. Francis

(Prayer for Peace)

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace;
where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
and where there is sadness, joy.
O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;
to be understood, as to understand;
to be loved, as to love; for it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to Eternal Life. Amen
