Mission Statement

We the people of Saint Agnes are:

an inclusive urban community, rich in diversity of age, ethnicity, gender, orientation, culture, talent, & treasure; a faith community, enlivened and empowered through Baptism to celebrate and proclaim the presence of Christ among us.

We declare to one and all that we commit ourselves to:

grow spiritually as disciples of Christ
to become men and women for others
build community through hospitality,
ecumenism and social & cultural events understand cultural differences and accept them as sources of enrichment give loving service & outreach to those in need promote social justice issues in our neighborhood and in the larger community
of city, nation, and world.

We pledge ourselves
to be a light in the darkness
through the love that we share in the name of Christ
and through the power and guidance
of the Holy Spirit.

February 11 & 12, 2017

Dear Parishioners,

Next weekend at all the liturgies a very direct survey will be given to each of the parishioners. Three questions will be asked: 1.) Do you attend this Mass regularly? 2.) What attracts you to this Mass? 3.) How would you like to see this Mass enhanced or made more significant? The purpose of this survey is to help the staff and the parish council understand what draws parishioners to a specific liturgy. We have wonderful liturgical life at St. Agnes and we hope to better publicize to the wider community what could be a significant assistance to one's faith life. We want the People of San Francisco to better know who we are.

We would like you to take the survey home, respond to the questions and return it next week at the liturgy. The Parish Council will evaluate them and propose possible action items to the St. Agnes Staff. Thank you for your assistance.

This week I will be speaking of the Archdiocesan Annual Appeal. It is heartening that the Archdiocese has been so active on the Immigration issues, Restorative Justice and the Death Penalty. We saw their fine work at our meeting on Rapid Response Training in case the fate of undocumented immigrants becomes worse than it is. Lorena Melgarejo of the Office of Public Policy and Social Concerns and our own Natalie Terry were a powerful one-two punch.

Prayers and good-fortune to Scott Grinthal as he moves to a new job as a Substance Counselor in San Jose. He will be missed in our parish office and we thank him for all his many years of service to St. Agnes. Fortunately, Scott will remain as our Cantor on the weekends. Marco Matute, longtime parishioner and choir member, will be taking over for Scott in the office and is a wonderful addition as our Administrative Assistant. Please join me in welcoming Marco to his new position.

Raymond Allen, S.J.

Pope Francis' February Prayer Intention
"Comfort for the Afflicted"

"That all those who are afflicted, especially the poor, refugees, and marginalized, may find welcome and comfort in our communities."

Lent at the ISLC: Mercy in the City

This Lent join St. Agnes & the ISLC for a community reading of Mercy in the City: How to Feed the Hungry, Give Drink to the Thirsty, Visit the Imprisoned & Keep Your Day Job by Kerry Weber, Associate Editor at America Magazine.

Throughout the Lenten Season there will be opportunities to gather for book discussions, service, action and retreat at the ISLC. Stay tuned for the full Lenten schedule!

To prepare for Lent, you can now order your copy of Mercy in the City for $10 from the ISLC. Sign up at the ISLC table in the back of the church, e-mail Natalie or visit our website to reserve your copy.

Save the Date: Thursday, February 16th, 6:30pm
Invoking the Spirit, Claiming the Call: An International Call to Prayer for the Study Commission on the Women's Diaconate

Join us for an evening of prayer for the ongoing work of the Study Commission on the Women's Diaconate. Catholics around the world will have the opportunity to join this prayer service via live-streamed video hosted by FutureChurch. The prayer service will remember and honor the women in history who served the Church as deacons, give witness to women who – today – experience a call to the diaconate, and call upon the Holy Spirit as the Commission continues to work.

Special Announcement:

ISLC Website Launch & Renewed Mission Statement

We are happy to announce that the renewed mission of the Ignatian Spiritual Life Center is to mobilize God's people to love the world. The Center has two hands: one helps people nurture a profound and authentic relationship with God, while the other provides the spiritual support and concrete opportunities to live. To find out more, visit the new website: www.ignatianspiritualifecenter.org

Save the Date – Ash Wednesday, Soup Dinner!

Please join us on March 1 immediately following the 5:30pm Ash Wednesday Mass for a soup dinner in the Spiritual Life Center. Unfortunately, parking will not be available for the soup dinner in the parking lot (only for the Mass), Urban will be using it at 7pm that night. Please RSVP to Natalie@SaintAgnesSF.com.

Gather@Grand Evening with Fruiht and Bialik
Thursday, February 23, 7:00-8:30pm, The Gathering Space, Dominican Sisters Center, 1520 Grand Ave., San Rafael

A timely topic that psychologists have spent decades studying is hope: what it means to be hopeful, how people can harness hope to overcome challenges, and how to encourage hope in one another. Professor Veronica Fruiht of Dominican University and Jeff Bialik, Executive Director of Catholic Charities-San Francisco, will offer an evening of information, inspiration, and practical insight into how hope can grow in each of us. All are welcome. There will be light refreshments and time for questions. Admission is free, but an RSVP is requested to the email or phone at CommunityRelations@sanrafael.org, 415-453-8303.

Retreats in Los Altos

Discernment and the Digital World

February 17 – 19, 2017, Jesuit Retreat Center

Opportunity or distraction? A chance to grow, or just more noise? In the business world, these are questions about strategy. In the spiritual life, they are question for discernment – not just what will work, but where God's spirit is at work. At the founding of the Jesuits in 1540, Ignatius faced similar challenges. In the retreat, they will explore how his insights and methods still apply to our lives today. This is a non-silent retreat for women and men. Fr. Eric Sundrup, S.J. (a graduate of the Jesuit School of Theology, Berkeley) and Fr. Sam Sawyer, S.J. will be leading the retreat. For more information go to the website at www.jrclosaltos.org.

Save the World...or Savor it? Being Reached by the Widow, Orphan, and Stranger
April 21 – 23, Jesuit Retreat Center

This retreat will offer a prayerful and reflective consideration of the original covenantal relationship between God and God's people. It will explore the four things Jesus took seriously: inclusion, non-violence, unconditional loving-kindness, and acceptance. Fr. Greg Boyle, S.J. of Homeboy Industries in East LA will be the retreat Director. This is a non-silent retreat for women and men.

ONGOING AT THE IGNATIAN SPIRITUAL LIFE CENTER

Apostles Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus Christ, his only Son, Our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
And ascended into heaven,
And is seated at the right hand of God,
the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the
living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church;
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen.

Stewardship Prayer

Lord and source of all gifts, I rejoice in the fullness of your generosity. I thank you for those whose lives are visible signs of your love and blessing to others. Give me the courage to do the same. Make me a good steward of all I have received generously sharing my time, abilities and material resources to build up your kingdom of love and justice. We ask this through Jesus Christ, in whom we begin and end all things. Amen.

Prayer of St. Francis

(Prayer for Peace)

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace;
where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
and where there is sadness, joy.
O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek
to be consoled as to console;
to be understood, as to understand;
to be loved, as to love; for it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to Eternal Life.
Amen
