March 16 & 17, 2019

Dear Parishioners,

Happy St. Patrick's Day! I'm sure there are many celebrations going on in the city this weekend in honor of Saint Patrick. Growing up, I didn't know much about him, just that he was the patron saint of Ireland. I soon learned when I went to Ireland and visited his burial place, there was much more to him than I could have imagined.

I had no idea, he wasn't actually from Ireland (he was most likely born in Scotland or Wales). He was kidnapped, taken to Ireland and sold into slavery. He eventually escaped, went back to Britain, but returned on his own to Ireland to preach the "Good News". This is a much different story than I imagined as a child. We never truly know a person's full story and we make so many assumptions based on the little we do know.

St. Patrick's story is one that is complicated and multi-faceted. He was able to grow into a faith in the midst of horrific circumstances. I often think of where our faith comes from? Often times our family gives us the foundation, but how do we grow in it and sustain it over the years?

This week's gospel is multi-faceted itself. But I think it gives us insights into prayer and how important prayer can be for our growth and relationship with God. I know for myself, this Lent I have been practicing Centering Prayer for the first time and it has helped me become more positive and calm during the day. It has been a great way to start my day and to develop a deeper relationship with God this Lenten season. How are you deepening your relationship with God this Lenten season? How are you growing and sustaining your faith? All good things to think about during this Lent.

On this St. Patrick's Day, I wish you all:

Slainte mhor agus a h-uile beannachd duibh!
(Good health and every good blessing to you!)

Maura Beckman

Film Screening, Friday April 5 @ 7pm:

"A Six-Dollar Cup of Coffee" (ISLC)

What would you think is more shocking: a one-dollar cup of coffee or a six-dollar cup of coffee? This film takes us through the entire value chain of coffee-making and trading. The documentary features a coffee co-op founded by indigenous Tzeltal producers in Chiapas, Mexico with support from the Mexican province of the Jesuits. The movie reminds people what is behind the scenes in the coffee industry and the real price of the coffee that we all so enjoy. Fr. Stephen Pitts, SJ & laywoman Christina Rossini have been instrumental in bringing the co-op's coffee to the USA market, addressing the biggest challenge plaguing producers in the developing world: lack of large market access. Join us for screening followed by a Q&A, coffee will be available for purchase. RSVP to Grace@SaintAgnesSF.com

Apostles Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus Christ, his only Son, Our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
And ascended into heaven,
And is seated at the right hand of God,
the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the
living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church;
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen.

Stewardship Prayer

Lord and source of all gifts, I rejoice in the fullness of your generosity. I thank you for those whose lives are visible signs of your love and blessing to others. Give me the courage to do the same. Make me a good steward of all I have received generously sharing my time, abilities and material resources to build up your kingdom of love and justice. We ask this through Jesus Christ, in whom we begin and end all things. Amen.

Prayer of St. Francis

(Prayer for Peace)

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace;
where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
and where there is sadness, joy.
O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;
to be understood, as to understand;
to be loved, as to love; for it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to Eternal Life. Amen
