March 3 & 4, 2018

Dear Parishioners,

Our ISLC Director, Grace and myself began a series on the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius last Wednesday. The series will continue March 8th and 15th at 7pm in the Spiritual Life Center. It focuses on a book Finding God in All Things written by Bill Barry, S.J. The book is a companion to the Spiritual Exercises. He has some wonderful insights into Ignatius' masterpiece. It cannot replace the Exercises, but it does present contemporary expressions of the various meditations Ignatius presents.

As you know the Exercises are a 30-Day experience. There are four weeks, but not weeks as we understand CHRONOS. The weeks are moments of KAIROS, moments of God's Grace when one receives the gift of the week, then you move on to new material. The first week has us understand the purpose of life and the reality of sin and evil. The 2nd week presents us with the challenge of following Jesus. The 3rd week is an entrance into Jesus' Passion and the 4th week into his resurrection. There are many graces one can receive in the Exercises and each person leaves with his/her own particular gift. There is no way we can enter deeply into the Exercises in three sessions but hopefully we will wet your appetite for a 19th Annotation Retreat which is the experience of the Exercises over nine months. You live your regular daily life except for a commitment of an hour of prayer a day and a weekly visit with your retreat director. I strongly encourage you to come to one of our sessions to taste Ignatius' great gift to the Church.

Raymond Allen, S.J.

Apostles Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus Christ, his only Son, Our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
And ascended into heaven,
And is seated at the right hand of God,
the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church;
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen.

Stewardship Prayer

Lord and source of all gifts, I rejoice in the fullness of your generosity. I thank you for those whose lives are visible signs of your love and blessing to others. Give me the courage to do the same. Make me a good steward of all I have received generously sharing my time, abilities and material resources to build up your kingdom of love and justice. We ask this through Jesus Christ, in whom we begin and end all things. Amen.

Prayer of St. Francis

(Prayer for Peace)

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace;
where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
and where there is sadness, joy.
O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;
to be understood, as to understand;
to be loved, as to love; for it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to Eternal Life. Amen
