Mission Statement

We the people of Saint Agnes are:

an inclusive urban community, rich in diversity of age, ethnicity, gender, orientation, culture, talent, & treasure; a faith community, enlivened and empowered through Baptism to celebrate and proclaim the presence of Christ among us.

We declare to one and all that we commit ourselves to:

grow spiritually as disciples of Christ to become men and women for others build community through hospitality, ecumenism and social & cultural events understand cultural differences and accept them as sources of enrichment give loving service & outreach to those in need promote social justice issues in our neighborhood and in the larger community of city, nation, and world.

We pledge ourselves to be a light in the darkness through the love that we share in the name of Christ and through the power and guidance of the Holy Spirit.

June 10 & 11, 2017

Dear Parishioners,

Last weekend we celebrated Pentecost. It is so important that our life be led by the Spirit so that the gifts that are given, especially wisdom and courage, are active in our daily life. We also need to know what weakens our reliance on the Holy Spirit. Ronald Rolheiser mentions two that are debilitating to our souls. I'd like to mention them.

We can be a person who is always looking for distractions to sustain us: television, game-shows, sporting events, sit-coms, talk-shows, entertainment-news, scandals reported in the daily papers, pop music, movies, theater and the like. Not that these are bad, what's bad is that they eventually anesthetize us and if we do it night after night, it slowly numbs us to the deeper issues of meaning, pain, justice, self-sacrifice, love, death. It numbs us just like addictions do. We need the Spirit to give us wisdom, depth and courage to meet the deeper issues of life head-on.

Another debilitating weakness is individualism, wanting to feel good about ourselves which can make us forget about the other, whether marriage, family or community. It blocks out the struggle which Dorothy Day called "the harshness of love." It is the painful five-and-take of everyday life. We need the Spirit to help us meet the habitual slights and hurts that arise in every marriage, family and community. We need what the Spirit brings: resilience, forgiveness, long-suffering, understanding and the ability to rise above individualism.

So, let us examine how much distractions and individualism have a hold on us.

Raymond Allen, S.J.

Apostles Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus Christ, his only Son, Our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
And ascended into heaven,
And is seated at the right hand of God,
the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church;
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen.

Stewardship Prayer

Lord and source of all gifts, I rejoice in the fullness of your generosity. I thank you for those whose lives are visible signs of your love and blessing to others. Give me the courage to do the same. Make me a good steward of all I have received generously sharing my time, abilities and material resources to build up your kingdom of love and justice. We ask this through Jesus Christ, in whom we begin and end all things. Amen.

Prayer of St. Francis

(Prayer for Peace)

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace;
where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
and where there is sadness, joy.
O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;
to be understood, as to understand;
to be loved, as to love; for it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to Eternal Life. Amen
