July 14 & 15, 2018

Dear Parishioners,

“We are blessed with every spiritual blessing in the heavens; he chose us to be holy and without blemish.”

These words written to the Christian community in Ephesus in the first century are also written to us twenty centuries later. As I thought about it my first reaction was: Wait a minute! Really! Me! No, not me! But with a smile I had to think again.

I began to count my blessings. Children, grandchildren, a family filled with love that brings so much joy. The community here at St. Agnes brings joy too, a place where I can be both supported and challenged as I grow into the person God called me to be.

Then there is the blessing of creation. God’s presence everywhere.

As I move into silent prayer, I am aware of my breath, each breath the gift of life, each breath the gift of the Spirit. I am not alone.

Prayer always brings me to those in need— Syria, Yemen and Palestine; people who are grieving, people who are struggling with disabilities, with illness, and those dying. Gratitude is always part of prayer too--gratitude for the Thai boys rescued from the tunnel and for the one person who lost his life in that effort.

I pray for our church and our country, both so polarized. Where is the Holy Spirit, I wonder? Not sure. But I think this is the blessing Paul is talking about. We live and struggle with so many things yet, God’s grace works slowly and secretly in our lives. We live in hope.

Hope is itself one of God’s spiritual blessings for all of us.

"Going through the 19th Annotation immersed me in the totality of God's grace in the context of a chaotic and stressful year. During the 19th Annotation I was finishing my Masters, transitioning into a new job, and got engaged. In the midst of all this the 19th offered me structure, an amazing spiritual director, and the opportunity to move beyond stress to see God's presence in every part of my life. It was a deepening of my relationship with God by growing closer every week to Jesus. The 19th Annotation retreat was challenging in the best way, and an indescribable source of light, life, and joy!"

Apostles Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus Christ, his only Son, Our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
And ascended into heaven,
And is seated at the right hand of God,
the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the
living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church;
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen.

Stewardship Prayer

Lord and source of all gifts, I rejoice in the fullness of your generosity. I thank you for those whose lives are visible signs of your love and blessing to others. Give me the courage to do the same. Make me a good steward of all I have received generously sharing my time, abilities and material resources to build up your kingdom of love and justice. We ask this through Jesus Christ, in whom we begin and end all things. Amen.

Prayer of St. Francis

(Prayer for Peace)

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace;
where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
and where there is sadness, joy.
O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;
to be understood, as to understand;
to be loved, as to love; for it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to Eternal Life. Amen
