July 8 - 9, 2017

Dear Parishioners,

I am at the Jesuit Retreat Center this week helping with a silent individually directed 8-day retreat. Our parish bulletin, in the ISLC section, asked recently: "Are you longing to deepen your relationship with Jesus? Do you want to find God's will in your life?" That is what a retreat based on the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius is about.

St. Ignatius wrote the Spiritual Exercises from the experiences of his life and the lives of the people he helped get closer to God. He designed them to take 30 days, full time, in prayer. However, very few people can spend this much time from their daily lives, so he suggests several adaptations. One of them is the program being offered by the ISLC: the "Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life" experience otherwise known as the 19th annotation retreat. A different adaptation is the one I am helping with, 5 to 8 days of silent individually directed prayer. Quite a change from our ordinary lives! We hear in sermons how to let the Lord into our lives, but taking several days for prayer, as these people are doing at the Jesuit Retreat Center of Los Altos, can be a much more powerful experience.

In my experience, all of the retreatants find something of value in their week of prayer. Not just nuns and priests, but real ordinary people, young and old, ranging from a recently engaged young couple to a 92-year-old woman. The woman told me she learned how closely God is with her as she ages. One newly retired and divorced man who was trying to learn how the Lord wanted him to serve at this stage in his life felt the call very strongly to first of all forgive his ex! How can one serve God if he is unable to forgive? When we are open to listening, the Holy Spirit tells each of us what we need to hear.

As I write this letter before I leave for Los Altos, I do not know who I will be directing. Since, as all of you well know, prayer is very important in our lives, I ask you to please keep the people I am directing in your prayers this week.

St. Peter Claver, SJ, reminds us: "Seek God in all things and we shall find God by our side."

But remembering and appreciating them can shift us into a more positive outlook. Pedro Arrupe: His Life & Legacy
Thursday, July 20; 7:00 – 9:00 PM

A documentary about the life of Pedro Arrupe, S.J., who has been called "The Second Founder" of the Society of Jesus. His legacy is one of "men and women for others," committed to human dignity, the common good, and the integration of lay men and women into the Jesuit mission -- the service of faith and the promotion of justice.

Georgetown University commissioned the film to honor Arrupe, because of his wide reforms to the Jesuit order. The documentary includes interviews with Arrupe, footage of his life and work, and interviews with Jesuits who were closest to him. For more information contact: Natalie@SaintAgnesSF.com.

Apostles Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus Christ, his only Son, Our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
And ascended into heaven,
And is seated at the right hand of God,
the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the
living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church;
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen.

Stewardship Prayer

Lord and source of all gifts, I rejoice in the fullness of your generosity. I thank you for those whose lives are visible signs of your love and blessing to others. Give me the courage to do the same. Make me a good steward of all I have received generously sharing my time, abilities and material resources to build up your kingdom of love and justice. We ask this through Jesus Christ, in whom we begin and end all things. Amen.

Prayer of St. Francis

(Prayer for Peace)

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace;
where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
and where there is sadness, joy.
O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;
to be understood, as to understand;
to be loved, as to love; for it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to Eternal Life. Amen
